About the ILR

History:

The ILR was incorporated in 1987 to record and maintain the genealogy of camelids in North America. The office of the ILR moved to Kalispell, MT in 1996 where it remains today. The ILR employs a registrar and office staff and operations are overseen by a five person board of directors.

The ILR's Commitment to the Future

The ILR is committed to providing fast and accurate processing of your registration needs at a reasonable cost.

The ILR is committed to providing value to the entire llama industry by providing services that are beneficial to all llama owners, regardless of their preferred type of llama or the preferred use of their llamas.

The ILR is committed to cooperating with other llama organizations in ways that will benefit the entire llama industry.
