The Pot of Gold Llama Futurity for Youth provides an opportunity for Youth to succeed and to promote the continued involvement of Youth in the Llama Industry, provides a marketing opportunity for breeders and creates added-value to quality young animals of any gender.

Where is the Futurity held and how do I sign up?

This is the easy part — every time a youth shows a nominated llama in an ILR-SD show, they earn points towards the year end Futurity Pot. The Winner of the Futurity is based on a POINTS championship, not a specific event.

Will all ILR-SD shows have a Futurity Class?

There are no Futurity classes - show the llama in the Halter class and you automatically gain Futurity Points! Show the animals in Performance and automatically gain Futurity Points!

Who is Eligible? Any ILR Youth member is eligible to participate in the Youth Futurity.

What Animals Are Eligible? Males, females or geldings are eligible from 12-36mths of age and must be nominated for the Futurity.

Where do I buy a Nominated Llama? Breeders or Sellers that are ILR Members can nominate a llama and it must be posted for sale on the Llama-Oogle Llamas for Sale page of the ILR website, www.lamaregistry.com. Only nominated and posted animals are eligible for the Futurity. The breeder can designate which futurity they are nominating for. Animals must be registered at time the animal is transferred to youth ownership.

Can a Youth buy a llama from their family farm? Yes, but the nomination fee will be $75 and the animal will not be listed on the sales list on the website. The animal must still be registered to the youth.

How much does it cost to nominate a Llama? The cost to nominate a llama is $50 for each category and is paid by the seller the first year of eligibility and paid by the Youth owner second year of eligibility. Animals nominated for a youth from the nominating family will have a $75 nomination fee for the first category and $50 for the second.

Can I nominate a llama for only one Futurity?

Absolutely! The breeder can nominate an animal as a Halter animal, a Performance animal or both!

How do I know how many points my animal has?

There will be a Futurity Top Ten List on the ILR website, www.lamaregistry.com.

Do Futurity llamas receive ILR-SD and UAP points too?

Absolutely! This means that the youth has three opportunities for points by entering only one show.

Who can show the llama? The Futurity llamas must be registered to and shown by the youth member only and the animal cannot be shared by siblings.

Is there prize money for the Futurity points winner?

Yes, the payout fund will be split between the top 3 in each category (50% / 30% / 20%)

How is the Youth Futurity funded?

The breeder nomination fee is $50 of which $45 goes into the Youth Futurity payout fund and $5 goes into the ILR marketing account. Breeders may also make directed donations into the Pot of Gold Futurity to fund the payouts.

Can I keep showing my llama after it is too old for the Futurity?

Absolutely. The animal will still get ILR-SD and UAP points for its entire life, it is just too old for the Youth Futurity.

Can adults participate in the Pot of Gold Futurity?

No, not yet, but as the program develops, additional Futurity divisions may be added.

You can complete your membership on-line as well as make a credit card payment on the ILR website— www.lamaregistry.com or complete and mail the following form.
