We're excited about the fourth annual ILR Show Division International Gathering of Friends and Champions! Join us at the Gathering for great family fun. The success of this event hinges on the support shown by the ILR-SD membership. Thank you in advance for your sponsorship and support of the ILR Show Division International Gathering of Friends and Champions. We look forward to enjoying llamas with everyone at The Gathering in June. For the second year in a row, two National Show Associations have joined together to share a venue. The Llama Futurity Association, LFA, will be holding their World Futurity, Claims Futurity and Select Auction during the same weekend as The Gathering. Let's build on last year's successes and continue making positive steps for the industry!

The Gathering DEDICATION information

The ILR Board has adopted the tradition held in many livestock associations and national agriculture events of dedicating the National Show to someone who has made a major impact on the industry. The recipient of this dedication will be someone who has had an impact on the industry; someone who has helped promote llamas in a positive manner, someone who supports the industry as a whole, not just their area of interest, and someone who has committed themselves to improving the industry for llamas and for llama owners. The Fourth Annual ILR-SD International Gathering of Friends and Champions is dedicated to Dr. Murray Fowler. Please see your Show Book to read about Dr. Fowler.

We welcome suggestions from the membership for the 2015 dedication. Please send your suggestions to ilrboard@lamaregistry.com.

The Gathering 2014 JUDGES

We are pleased to announce the judges for this event. The decision was made by the Governing Board to have a single judge system, rather than a multiple judge event. The judges for this year's event were chosen by the Committees of the Governing Board. These judges were selected because of the high degree of integrity, experience and knowledge they each have. We are proud to have them judge the Gathering of Friends and Champions.

The Gathering 2014 GENERAL Rules:

Exhibitors are required to be ILR-SD members to enter The Gathering.

All llamas must be ILR registered for Halter & Fleece Classes. Non-ILR registered or llamas without an ILR listing number may show in the Performance, Showmanship, and Youth divisions after obtaining an ILR Tracking Number. Alpacas can show in The Gathering as well. They can show in the Performance, Showmanship and Youth divisions after obtaining an ILR Tacking Number. ILR registration and tracking numbers serve as point trackers for the ILR-SD.

One entry/youth in all youth performance classes. An animal can only go through each Free Style Obstacle, Companion Public Relations, or Trail class one time. Youth age determined by their age on January 1st of 2014, however if a youth reaches the age of 7 between January 1, 2014, and show date, they will be eligible to show as of their birth date.

YOUTH AGES:

- Jr. Youth: 7-11
- Intermediate Youth: 12-15
- Sr. Youth: 16-19

HALTER CLASSES: Age calculated as of June 15, 2014, due to possibility of variance of halter class schedule.

- Juvenile: 5 < 12 months.
- Yearling: 12 < 24 months
- 2 year old: 24 < 36 months
- Adult: over 36 months for llamas
- AGAIN THIS YEAR: Get of Sire class will be TWO animals – they must be shown in halter classes to be used for Get of Sire.

NEW CLASSES FOR 2014:

Supreme Classes: This year we are offering the following classes: Supreme Female, Supreme Male, Supreme Non-Breeder, as well as Supreme Novice Performance, and Supreme Advanced Performance. To be eligible to participate in Supreme Female, Supreme Male and Supreme Non-Breeder, the animal must have earned a Grand Championship at an ILR-SD sanctioned show within the year since the 2013 Gathering (2013 and 2014 Gatherings are included). To be eligible for the Supreme Novice Performance, and Supreme Advanced Performance the animal must have earned a Performance Championship within the year since the 2013 Gathering (2013 and 2014 Gatherings are included). The entry fee for these classes is $50.00, but the winner of each class will be awarded a cash prize equal to 100% of the entry fees paid for that particular class. Each of these classes will be judged by a three-judge panel.

Scholarship Sweepstakes: The Board of Directors established this class and guaranteed a minimum $1000.00 purse. The goal of the class is to provide competition for young adults (20-25 years of age as of January 1, 2014) who have become too old to compete in Youth Classes.

The llama must be owned or co-owned by the young adult competing in the class by March 31, 2014 OR the llama must have been shown by the competitor in youth classes prior to 2014.

The class will consist of 10 obstacles, judged by two judges. The judges will be volunteers and not the Gathering judges. The judges must have experience in performance classes and preferably be ILR certified judges. Judges will be selected by the ILR Board of Directors at the Gathering. Relatives of the judges may not compete in the Sweepstakes class. The entry fee for this class is $15.00 per entry. As a minimum, the top three place will be paid ($600, $250, $100); more places may be paid based on entries and additional Sponsors. If numerous entries are received there may be a preliminary and final round.

All American Llama: This award is for the overall halter, fleece, and performance winner at the Gathering. It is a calculated award: the winner will be determined by totaling the points earned in each class bases on the published ILR point chart. To be eligible to register for this class, the animal must first be registered in the appropriate halter, fleece, and performance classes. For the performance portion, only one performance class will be used. The performance class used will be the performance class yielding the highest total points. For example, if a llama places 6th, 7th and 3rd in each of their performance classes and each class has 10 animals, then the 3rd place would be used in the calculation for All American Llama. This award will be presented at the ILR Awards Dinner at the Gathering.

Special Composite Award: A special award will be presented this year to the winner of the composite class. To compete for this award, the animal must be entered in Halter, and Fleece-on/Coat-on, and then in the Composite class.

POINTS / AWARDS OTHER THAN GATHERING AWARDS:

Don't forget, all placings at The Gathering also count towards UAP and ILR-SD awards. Animals nominated in the Pot of Gold Halter and Performance Futurities for Youth and the Incentive Fund will also receive points for your placing at The Gathering.

ILR-SD HALTER LLAMA FLEECE DESCRIPTIONS: (See Guidelines, Article XI, Halter)

Suri: Fleece exhibits distinct lock formation, hangs straight down from midline, exhibits independent movement, a cool, slick handle and has no crimp. Coverage may vary from light to heavy.

Silky: Fleece exhibits a very soft/silky handle with natural wave, may exhibit some crinkle, but no crimp, has nearly indiscernible guard hair, and has minimal loft and coverage can vary from medium to heavy. Ideally entries exhibit the majority of these criteria

Classic/Light Combined: Mostly double coated with moderate density but short length. Fleece coverage rapidly declines below the elbow/stifle and be very short below the knee/hock. Usually guard hair is longer than the undercoat.

Medium: Llamas may be double coated with moderate density and length. Llama exhibits coverage extending down the leg with minimal coverage below the knee and hock.

Moderate Heavy: Even neck fleece that blends into body fleece of moderate density and length. Legs will exhibit coverage down to the knees and potentially down to the toes with a decline in coverage below the knees on front legs. Rear legs will exhibit coverage down to the pastern on the back of the legs with minimal coverage on the front of the legs.

Extreme Heavy: Will exhibit abundant neck and body fleece. Front legs will exhibit coverage down to the toes maintaining heavy coverage below the knees. Rear legs will exhibit dense coverage down the back of the legs along with fiber on the front side of the legs.

Please enter your animals in their proper wool divisions. The judge will move animals out of the exhibitor-registered division if the animal does not fit with the rest of the animals in the class.

Llama Fleece-On/Coat-On Fiber Classes will be held in a specified area and judged individually. Time to be announced.

Shorn Fiber and Specialty/Products entries must be turned in by 8:00 pm Thursday evening, June 12th.

TRADITIONAL SILENT AUCTION

You will be able to bid on donated items using either your name or your ILR owner code number. It's best to keep an eye on the bidding sheet for any item you want to make sure you have the last and highest bid. There will be a preannounced cut off time ending the auction. PEOPLE'S CHOICE AWARD – Finished Fleece Products

Criteria: Fleece product MUST be entered in the Fleece Product division for judging.

After the fleece products are judged, all fleece products will be in the People's Choice Award Contest and will be on display. Individual names or farm names will not be attached to the product. Each product entered will be assigned a number. Exhibitors and visitors may vote, only once, for the Finished Fleece Product they feel should be the "People's Choice" based on the creativity of the finished product, and what catches their eye. Cast a vote by filling out a ballot and placing in the ballot box located by the People's Choice Award display.

Winner will be announced at the ILR Awards Picnic and awarded with ribbons for Fleece On. Finished Fleece Products and Shorn Fleece may be picked up after the awards are announced Saturday evening.

TREATS AND TREASURES

Tables will be set up for people to bring "goodies" (baked or otherwise) for sale. We are thinking healthy for 2014, so Fruits and Vegetables are welcome. These will be out starting on Friday morning for people to purchase. All proceeds will go to the ILR. Items could include cookies, bars, fruits, breads, candies, caramel corn, cheese curds, etc.

Additionally, items for which a person no longer has a use, wants, or simply needs to eliminate from their barn, will be put on display for sale. People can purchase them for a nominal charge and all proceeds will also go to the ILR. This can be leads, halters, brushes, grooming aids, nail trimmers, show clothing articles, cria coats, tie outs, knickknacks, knitting supplies, spinning supplies, display boards, hangers for banners or posters, basically anything that is portable and could be useful to someone else.

Please no hard to transport items.

YOUTH GATHERING DOLLARS

- Youth can earn extra Gathering Dollars at the 2014 Gathering event by volunteering to help at the show in various areas. Exhibitors or visitors can purchase Gathering Dollars at the value to give to youth that they feel are deserving for any reason of receiving those dollars, i.e.: well mannered, well dressed, helpful, friendly, etc. A $10.00 donation will purchase $100 in Gathering dollars.
- Youth will receive a bonus of $100 Gathering Dollars for each class they enter at the 2014 Gathering event.
- All youth Gathering Dollars earned up to the time of the event will be in the exhibitor packets at the 2014 Gathering event in June of 2014.
- Gathering Dollars earned will be for youth to purchase donated items at the YOUTH ONLY AUCTION to be held on Saturday evening at the 2014 International Gathering of Friends and Champions.

Anyone wanting to make a donation of an auction item for the Youth Only Auction may do so at the 2014 Gathering event, or in the alternative, people can contact Lisa Robinson at (317) 341-0533 or lrobinson17@comcast.net to let Lisa know of a youth auction item you will be donating and sending and/or bringing to the Gathering.

Once the 2014 event is over, any Gathering Dollars not spent by the youth will have to be discarded.

Bonus Events this Weekend

The weekend has a lot to offer everyone with all the Gathering Classes, but we have additional activities for the weekend.

1. Camelid Companion Certification (CCC) – once again, the ILR will be offering the CCC program during the Gathering Weekend. Because this is a three day event, you will have the opportunity to complete a full level for CCC – three courses over two days with two different certifiers. Click here for more information on the CCC.
2. The Llama Futurity Association (LFA) – the LFA will be sharing the facility for the weekend and holding their World Futurity Show, The LFA Auction and Claims Futurities for Males. This cooperative effort between the LFA and the ILR-SD brings many advantages to exhibitors – one set of travel expenses and hotels, groom once for two events, one set of stalls for two national events – a win-win for the exhibitors and the industry. Click here for more information on the LFA.
